The cosmopolitan city of Sydney offers plenty of things to do and places to explore. Discover charming neighborhoods lined with cobblestone streets, sample local foods and produce at weekend markets, enjoy the views from outdoor cafes and learn about Aboriginal arts and crafts displayed at many art galleries. Visit the Taronga Park Zoo, the Sydney Harbour National Park or the beaches of Mosman via a short ferry ride across the harbor. For easy access to downtown attractions as well as exceptional amenities and services, plan a stay in one of Sydney's luxury hotels.

Four Seasons Hotel Sydney

Situated within the historic Rocks district, overlooking the harbor, this elegant hotel was named one of the "World's Best Hotels" by Travel + Leisure magazine. All of the 531 guest rooms, including the 121 suites, feature contemporary mahogany furnishings, high-speed Internet access, large-screen televisions with a DVD player and iPod/iPad connectivity as well as marble bathrooms with a deep soaking tub and a separate glass-walled shower. Some rooms offer views of the Sydney skyline, George Street or Walsh Bay, while other accommodations provide views of the iconic Sydney Opera House and Circular Quay. Guests staying in the harbor-view rooms overlook the Sydney Harbour Bridge, Darling Harbour, the Opera House and Circular Quay. For the ultimate pampering experience, treat yourself to an afternoon in the spa. Products with indigenous ingredients, including essential oils, fruit extracts, salt and clay are used in a variety of skincare, massage and aromatherapy spa treatments. Additional recreational options include a well-equipped fitness facility with a juice and water bar as well as 66-foot outdoor pool with a separate whirlpool. Specializing in modern Australian and Mediterranean cuisine, Kable's is the hotel's premier restaurant; poolside snacks, sandwiches, salads, sushi and drinks are served at The Cabana. For light meals in a casual atmosphere, stop by The Cafe or sample from the bar and cocktail menu in the Club Bar. If you provide this family-friendly hotel with the names and ages of your children prior to your arrival, a variety of children's amenities will be prepared, including a complimentary welcome of bedtime milk and cookies, child-size bathrobes and complimentary baby and children's toiletries. BLUE Sydney

Providing scenic views of the Sydney Central Business District, the harbor and the Royal Botanical Gardens, this cosmopolitan luxury hotel, named on the 2007 Conde Nast Traveler "Gold List," is located on the Wharf at Woolloomooloo. BLUE Sydney offers 100 guest rooms, including 36 loft rooms. All of the accommodations in the modernized historic building feature warm brown furnishings, deluxe bed linens, an over-sized desk, flat-screen televisions with DVD players, high-speed Internet access, a minibar and views the Woolloomooloo Bay Village or the Sydney Harbour. The property includes a state-of-the-art fitness facility, an indoor heated pool and an outdoor sundeck. The Cafe offers large breakfasts and modern Australian cuisine in a casual setting. Featuring an extensive martini menu and a hip, urban ambiance, the Water Bar was named "Bar of the Year" by the Sydney Morning Herald and "One of the Top 10 Bars in the World" by Conde Nast Traveler.
