WORLD'S BEST SERVICE

Whether you need a restaurant recommendation or to plan an excursion off-property, attentive service can make the difference between an average stay and one you'll remember. That's why we ask our readers to rate the hotels that impress them most. Here, this year's winners. PLUS Behind the scenes with nine top hotel staffers, and what stellar service looks like at the No. 1 property overall.

SIBONGILE BOSCH

Barman, Bushmans Kloof, South Africa

Years on the Job 3
Into the Wild

Sometimes we host dinners in a surprise location in the mountains of the Bushmans Kloof reserve, and I tend bar with an edited-down selection—it would be impossible to bring all of our wines to the mountain! Our staff performs gumboot dancing and African drumming while guests mingle before dinner.

JOHN LEWIS

Guest relations manager, Lodge at Kauri Cliffs, New Zealand

Years on the Job 6

Planning Ahead If a guest is headed to Pink Beach or the 800-year-old Kauri Tree,

I pack a bag with towels, bottled water, and a two-way radio in case of emergency. I also use the nightly cocktail hour to find out what everyone wants to do the next day: horseback riding? Clay shooting? And I introduce guests to other guests. Many end up having dinner or playing tennis together. Tepene Tablelands Rd., Matauri Bay; 800/735-2478; kauricliffs.com; doubles from $842.

METHODOLOGY Rankings are based on reader evaluations collected in the Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards survey. For hotels, scores are indexed averages of evaluations for the characteristic "Service." Readers were asked to rate candidates on a scale of 1 to 5, where 5 means "Excellent" and 1 means "Poor." Scores are rounded to the nearest hundredth of a point; in the event of an exact tie, properties or companies share a ranking. For the full survey methodology, go to TravelandLeisure.com/worldsbest.
