ST. MAARTEN:--- On Wednesday, July 27th from 6-9pm, Porto Cupecoy will host its 4th Summer Concert Series event. These weekly concerts have turned into the season's "must see" events. This week is set to be another groundbreaking concert with Uruguay's Candombe drum master, Tatita Marquez. Coming off of his recent hit appearance at the South African World Cup, Tatita Marquez has gained international acclaim, performing worldwide in Argentina, Brazil, U.S., Spain, France, and Chile. Using candombe fusion with contemporary percussion, Tatita will be adding to the untouchable momentum and success of the Summer Concert Series! Admission is FREE, and the restaurants and shops at Porto Cupecoy have special offerings for concert guests. Porto Cupecoy Marina offers free dockage for event guests that call in advance - 599 545 3300. The Summer Concert Series is sponsored by Porto Cupecoy, La Samanna, and Orient-Express. Visit the Arts in the Plaza Facebook page for event schedule and details.
